Day 1: Friday 26 May 2017 - Okavango Delta

Arrive into Maun Airport (flight not included) where you will be met and assisted with check in for your small flight to the Delta (booked by go2africa) On arrival you will be warmly welcomed by the Pom Pom team and transfer to camp for 2 nights. Your stay includes accommodation, park fees, game activities and select non premium brand drinks.

Accommodation Pom Pom Camp
Check in at Pom Pom Camp
of Nights 2 nights

Located at the heart of the Okavango Delta in northern Botswana, Pom Pom Camp is a secluded getaway and the ideal base from which to explore the Delta. With beautiful views over a hippo-filled lagoon, this long-established and traditional safari-style camp offers a full range of Okavango Delta activities including game drives, guided walking safaris and mokoro (canoe) trips.

Glide through the Delta's intricate maze of waterways on a guided canoe safari and take in the amazing scenery and become familiar with the region's amazing birdlife. Then, go on a game drive with an expert guide, well-versed in the art of tracking; you'll be after all the classic African animals such as elephant, lion, buffalo and leopard - and there's a wealth of other wildlife too.

Pom Pom Camp has been designed to reflect a traditional safari-style ambience and comprises nine roomy and well-appointed tents, each equipped with full en suite semi-open bathrooms.

Delicious meals are prepared at the camp and served in the main dining area. After dinner, enjoy coffee or Cognac - served around the campfire - as you contemplate the events of the day.

Accommodation Moremi Crossing
Check in at Moremi Crossing
of Nights          2 nights

Moremi Crossing has an ideal setting on a palm-fringed island surrounded by seasonal floodplains within the Okavango Delta. You arrive at the camp by motorboat or a traditional wooden dugout canoe known as a mokoro, which sets the mood for this remote, water-based safari experience. The lodge also has its own airstrip allowing you to connect directly from Maun or Kasane, and observe the spectacular Okavango from a bird's eye view. Activities include half- or full-day boat trips with game walks, picnic lunches and sunset cruises.

Set in the pristine Moremi Game Reserve, Moremi Crossing is an environmentally friendly lodge, running entirely on solar energy and incorporating the latest waste-disposal technology. Tented suites combine comfort with simplicity, and you can also spend a night or two in the wild on a prearranged camping and hiking trip through big game territory. Wildlife that has been spotted on walking safaris include lion, leopard, wild dog, elephant, giraffe, zebra, buffalo, red lechwe and other antelope species. For birders, look out for African jacanas, African fish eagles, malachite kingfishers and even the rare Pel's fishing owl.

You can expect wholesome fare and home-style cooking. On camping trips, spend the evening preparing dinner around the campfire as you relive the exciting moments of the day's safari. Picnics are available for full-day boat and walking trips.

The Chobe Marina Lodge has a beautiful location amid lush green gardens and palm trees, overlooking the vast Chobe River. This lodge has a range of comfortable suites, studios and apartments ensuring something for each traveller in a no-fuss, classic safari theme. Situated in the northeast of Botswana, the lodge is easily accessible, and is close to the converging borders of Botswana, Zambia, Zimbabwe and Namibia. This ideal location affords short transfers to some of Southern Africa's premier wildlife destinations including the Okavango Delta, Victoria Falls, Caprivi Strip and Kasane Forest Reserve.

At the lodge, you are invited to explore Chobe National Park on boat and land safaris. Chobe is known for its large and dense population of elephants, and is where lion prides regularly tackle herds of buffalo and clash with packs of hyena. Other big game sighted are giraffe, antelope, cheetah and wild dog. In addition to safaris, you can enjoy rejuvenating and restorative health and beauty treatments at the spa, play a leisurely round at the nearby golf course, or try to reel in the famous tiger fish.

The Commissioner's Restaurant offers a refined dining environment with an à la carte menu featuring fresh, locally sourced ingredients. The Mokoros Family Restaurant has a casual and social atmosphere serving continental and full English breakfasts in the mornings and a snack menu for light luncheons that can also be enjoyed at the poolside. Buffet lunches and dinners are available for groups by request. A barbeque dinner can also be booked by groups and is great for experiencing an evening of traditional song and dance.

The Kingdom Hotel is located on the Zimbabwean side of the majestic Victoria Falls – one of Africa’s most beautiful natural jewels that is characterised by abundant waters cascading into the mighty depths, feeding the lush surrounding foliage which in turn supports a variety of wildlife. The Kingdom Hotel is conveniently located within walking distance to the entrance of the Victoria Falls National Park, as well as being close to Victoria Falls town with easy access to local markets and lifestyle centres.

Bold African décor and rough natural textures offer an authentic and unfussy stay, and the Great Enclosure is a one-stop destination where you can enjoy dining, shopping and entertainment without stepping outside of the hotel. Take a splash in the pool, indulge at the spa, or try your luck at gambling at the casino. The hotel is perfect for families, featuring a supervised play area and suites fitted with bunk beds, while honeymooners and couples will enjoy the spacious lake-facing suites with private balconies.

The Kingdom at Victoria Falls comprises 294 comfortably furnished rooms in separate 2 and 3-story units. Each room has an en suite bathroom, air-conditioning , satellite TV, radio and telephone.

Breakfast is served daily at the main restaurant – called the White Waters – and a range of restaurants are open at the hotel’s entertainment centre, ensuring easy access to delicious and popular local favourites. In-room dining is available 24-hours a day for quick meals and convenient snacks. Alternatively, visit Victoria Falls Town for casual dining and traditional African buffets.
